

GOLF CANADA HANDICAP SYSTEM CHANGES FOR 2016

Golf Canada reviews the Rules of Golf every four years or on an accelerated schedule. Such changes can affect the Golf Canada Handicap System. Two changes for 2016 are:

- 1) Scores are no longer accepted for handicap purposes if using an anchored stroke.
- 2) Rounds played alone (with no other golfer or witness) are no longer accepted for handicap purposes.

Handicap Committee
Alastair Fleming, Chairman
April, 2016